

Quiet Space Attendants – Brief Sheet

General Brief

- The Quiet(R) Space is located at Charcoal Lane and is run by Victorian Aboriginal Health Services (VAHS).
- This space is offered to anyone who's experiencing sensory overload and would like a space to take a break. It also runs to provide space for local Elders.
- Assist and collaborate with VAHS staff in keeping the space tidy, refreshing the catering and keeping an eye over the needs of those who access the space.
- If issues arise, please contact VAHS staff or Volunteer Coordinator.

This Role Suits

- Seating available.
- Someone with a good understanding of accessibility requirements.
- Likes one on one interactions rather than big crowds.

On Arrival

- Go to Volunteer HQ at LCI to sign on and collect your accreditation.
- Meet up with Volunteer Coordinator at Volunteer HQ, who will brief you on your role.

Sensitivity

- Many people who attend, volunteer or perform at Victoria's Pride represent diverse communities which may be at risk or prone to discrimination. Keep watch for anti-social crowd members and call for assistance through the EOC or security if required.
- Use gender-neutral pronouns until the person identifies their pronouns.

At the End of your Shift

- Please come back to Volunteer HQ at LCI to sign out.
- You are then free to enjoy the festival. Please change out of your volunteer t-shirt and accreditation at this time.
