Welcome

#midsumma

John Caldwell Midsumma Festival Chair

Welcome to another exciting Midsumma Festival.

I am constantly astounded by the growing role Midsumma plays in bringing our diverse communities together to promote true inclusion.

In past years we have focused on mentoring programs such as Midsumma Futures, a platform for aspiring artists to advance in their careers. In 2018, we launched Midsumma Pathways, a program for LGBTQIA+ artists with disability.

This year we launch BODY, an incredible major work focusing on strengthening Transgender, Gender Diverse and Intersex cultural voices.

The year-over-year growth has been both exciting and encouraging, the depth of the program and level of inclusion this year is by far the most inspiring sign that we are truly making a difference.

I encourage everyone more than ever, to study the program carefully, and get out to see as many events as you can to support our amazing and talented artists.

I look forward to seeing you all through the festival.

Victorian Government

For three decades the much-loved Midsumma Festival has made an outstanding contribution to our creative state by fostering and promoting the creativity, diversity and vibrancy of Victoria's LGBTQIA+ communities.

Midsumma is Victoria's premier LGBTQIA+ arts and cultural festival and it continues to go from strength to strength — as evidenced by this year's program. More than 1600 culture-makers will present 165 events across 75 venues in Melbourne and regional Victoria.

From art exhibitions, theatre, live music and spoken word to films, walks, talks and of course, the iconic Midsumma Carnival and Midsumma Pride March — there is something for everyone.

The Victorian Government is proud to partner with Midsumma to support LGBTQIA+ culture and to set the national standard for LGBTQIA+ equality and inclusion.

Congratulations to everyone involved with this year's program.

Happy Midsumma!

Sally Capp

Lord Mayor of Melbourne

Each year Midsumma Festival turns up the heat even higher in January and the City of Melbourne welcomes the burst of culture and community pride it brings.

More than 264,000 people took part in the 2018 festival, with 100,000 enjoying the colourful Midsumma Carnival at the Alexandra Gardens. The broad range of events — from music, film and dance to talks and sports — reflects the rich diversity of our city.

By making visible and celebrating many stories of sexuality and gender, Midsumma encourages respect for the backgrounds of all in our city. The City of Melbourne has been a proud supporter of Midsumma for many years.

Close to half of the events at Midsumma are free to take part in. I believe that this is the hallmark of a truly accessible community festival — one that contributes to making Melbourne a city of outstanding events and culture.

I congratulate the organisers and wish all taking part, a fun and festive Midsumma 2019.

Rachel Slade

Chief Customer Experience Officer & Executive Co-Sponsor, NAB Pride

We're looking forward to Midsumma 2019; an exciting opportunity for us to connect and celebrate the uniqueness of our community.

At NAB, we continue to build an inclusive work environment where our people can be their authentic selves, no matter what their sexual orientation and gender identity, enabling them to perform at their best. This year marks our seventh year partnering with Midsumma. We're thrilled that so many of our people continue to volunteer and get behind this iconic Melbourne festival.

This year we have a particular focus on Bisexual, Trans & Intersex education, shifting the conversation toward advocacy for the broader LGBTI+ community. And we're committed to extending our reach to empower LGBTI+ communities in rural areas. We're also excited to explore how we can improve the intersectionality within our diverse workforce to promote inclusion.

We thank & congratulate the Midsumma team & wish them all the best for a hugely successful festival. Happy Midsumma!

CEO Welcome

Karen Bryant

Chief Executive, Midsumma Festival

Welcome to Midsumma 2019!

Festivals are a time to indulge; to immerse ourselves in cultural offerings; to step outside of our normal day to day and experience different perspectives, different ways of thinking, different journeys and different inspirations; and to share these experiences with others.

This year's Midsumma Festival represents diverse ideas that will reach out and stimulate us emotionally on many levels and perhaps even change us in unexpected and profound ways.

Whether it is the visual, musical, physical, intellectual, social or theatrical events that usually grab your fancy, there is all that and more — so take a leap beyond the known. This is your opportunity to choose your own festival adventure as you navigate your way across 23 days of Midsumma.

Thanks to everyone who has helped bring this program to you and especially of course to all the artists and event producers whose stories, creativity and talent passionately fill the pages that follow.

I suggest you block out your calendar between 19 Jan and 10 Feb, to make every one of these days count. Book early and stay late!

We look forward to sharing it all with you.

About

Midsumma Festival

Midsumma Festival is Australia's premier LGBTQIA+ cultural festival, made for and by communities who live with shared experiences around diverse gender and sexuality.

We are a champion of LGBTQIA+ cultures, conversations and events. We are the intersection between generations, people, ideas, stories and experiences — a focal point for connections and belonging.

We create inclusive and safe social spaces. We provide platforms for shared experience in a world which often under-represents us. We value diversity and we embrace difference. We increase our communities' profiles and amplify the stories that might otherwise not be seen, heard or felt.

Although the primary 23 day festival is held in summer each year, Midsumma works year-round to provide artists, social-changers and culture-makers with support and tools to create, present and promote their work.

Midsumma Festival brings a diverse mix of artists, performers, communities and audiences together under a single umbrella for a celebration and innovative presentation of queer arts and culture.

Read on for our diverse festival program, made up of visual arts, theatre, film, live music, parties, sport, social events and public forums. Featuring approximately 165 events in 2019 with involvement by approximately 1600 culture-makers in over 75 different venues across Melbourne and wider Victoria to anticipated audiences of over 265,000.

Acknowledgement of Country

Midsumma acknowledges that Indigenous Australians are the first peoples of these lands. We pay our respects to all Indigenous Australians past and present, and we recognise their continuing spiritual and cultural connection to the land.

Midsumma takes place between High Summer and Late Summer according to the Wurundjeri calendar of seasons, on whose land much of this festival is taking place.

Midsumma Carnival

Kick-start the celebrations for Midsumma Festival 2019

Feel the vibes as we come out of the closet and into the sun for an all-day and all-night party to celebrate the beginning of another fabulous festival.

We're bringing back your favourites (yes and the dog show) and adding a pinch of lip-syncing, drag dazzling, stellar acts, fine food and a pop-up bar. If you didn't get through the array of stalls last year then make sure you arrive at 11am as the glitter begins to stir. We have more on offer than ever before.

Peek at our program with bite sized performances, relax in the chill-out zone, meet friends in the family domain, tackle the sports precinct and stay cool in the under 18s area. See all of the special events that lead us into the evening of T Dance, featuring a fantastic line-up of sassy sounds and DJs.

With safe spaces for families, friendlies, queer kinds and groupies you know there'll be something to suit everyone. Midsumma Carnival is a glass-free event and we're conscious of our footprint on the environment. So bring your sustainable vessels and paper straws, slap on the sunscreen for a full day of festivities, then shimmy on into the night.

Midsumma Pride March

Together we march

Paint on those stripes, fluff up your feathers, and douse yourself in glitter to march through St Kilda in Melbourne's iconic parade of rainbows and pride.

Victoria's annual queer march brings us together to stand tall and be proud, to honour community members who have brought us forth and most importantly, to revel in the celebrations with our family, friends and allies.

This year's Midsumma Pride March will highlight the diverse groups, personalities, sexualities and experiences that make our queer community so beautifully colourful. Everyone deserves to march and everyone deserves to be heard, to feel safe and to belong. We will remember that we are stronger as one and greater together!

Rock up, frock up and fly your flags at the new start time of 11am, as we embark on the kilometer-long fanfare to Catani Gardens for an afternoon of post-Pride festivities.

Queer Economies

Abbotsford Convent | Bus Projects | Centre for Contemporary Photography

24 Dec - 9 Feb

Give a little.

Is there someone to whom you are grateful? Queer Economies takes its cue from the handmade artworks that Australian artist and activist David McDiarmid gifted to friends and loved ones during his lifetime. Following in McDiarmid's generous logic, Queer Economies invites you to submit a gift as an exchange of gratitude, to be exhibited during Midsumma Festival. At the conclusion of the exhibition, these works will be gifted to the individuals they have been made for.

Submissions for gift donations close Mon 17 Dec. See midsumma.org.au for details.

“A Queer Apocalypse” by Tooth n’ Fang

Two women hide inside a lonely motel room on a forgotten road. Celebrating and mourning their last night together, they discuss love, sex, drugs, and the afterlife. Shifting between memory and surreal fantasy, their discussions spin into an intricate web of lust and longing, asking the question: is this the end of the world? Press play to find out.

Queen Kong

A rock-concert, space-fiction of meteoric proportions

Sarah Ward, the artist behind Yana Alana, brings you her latest stage creation, QUEEN KONG, in a space-fiction rock-concert of meteoric proportions. This mythological rock-god is backed by all-queer, gender-diverse band The HOMOsapiens, along with deaf performer Asphyxia and Auslan interpreter Kirri Dangerfield with video art by The Huxleys.

Queer Lady Magician

Revisiting a childhood love of stage magic with a strong sense of social justice — and a severe case of impostor syndrome

Can an overly honest person be a good magician? If you failed at something once should you never try again? And what’s with all these straight white men in Orientalist drag? Creatrix Tiara, Queer Lady Magician, revisits a childhood love for stage magic with a sense of social justice — and a severe case of impostor syndrome.

THE MAIDS

One Mistress, Two Maids, and a ferocious game of make believe

Each night, Solonge and Claire enact a perverse, elaborate fantasy of slaughtering their Mistress. Trapped by circumstance, this ritual has become their only escape. Seething with deliciously violent sensuality, this riotous exploration of class, gender and sexuality is delivered with a high octane glitter-slap of homoerotic theatricality. Genet's masterpiece reimagined by two of Melbourne's most exciting award-winning queer theatre makers.

The Rest is Drag

Sexuality is complicated in or out of costume, in this new musical comedy from Darwent & Gray

'The Rest Is Drag' is a hilarious and heartfelt blend of cabaret and musical theatre by queer writing duo Darwent & Gray. This original queer musical questions traditional understandings of identity, and the ways in which everyone can restrictively define themselves by labels. Starring Jack Beeby (Six Inches Uncut) and Anna Burley (Ira Luxuria), and featuring an entirely original score.

CHORUS

Explore the power of gossip in this darkly humorous and immersive video installation

CHORUS is a video and sound installation by artist Melanie Jame Wolf about the power of rumour. The work consists of a series of videos in which Wolf performs a cast of personas as they inhabit an imaginary Mythic Space. From this witty, stylised pop space of 'critical camp', CHORUS explores the pleasures and perils of unison voice of the group, and of speaking alone.

Dapper

A finessed fashion sensibility that considers costuming, codes and the allure of the queer gaze

Dapper features artists who have played with, constructed and considered the threads we wear and how style can both define and expose us. The exhibition connects to our queer histories, gender fluidity and acknowledges the defiantly dapper.

De/Afficiency by Debris Facility

Artist, The Debris Facility is a conglomerate entity inhabiting one human body, but whose boundaries and operations are leaky and evaporative. In this new responsive installation project by Debris Facility, im/material entanglements of the administration of control and haptic pleasures work with and against each other. Through mutations of consumer objects typically kept in close proximity to the body, De/Afficiency re-organ-ises biological systems and resonances of the body, reframing and shaping its social presence.

Hitched

Curated by Maddee Clark

On 9 December 2017, after a period of heightened public debate, legalised coupledness in the Marriage Act 1961 was defined as 'the union of 2 people to the exclusion of all others, voluntarily entered into for life'. Looking to art and the public archive, Hitched reflects on the histories and politics of queer communities and their relationship to legalised unions.

Leigh in London

This striking exhibition hones in on the work of Australian photographer, Robyn Beeche, during her time in London. The prolific artist documented seemingly opposing worlds: the post-punk, new romantic fashion and music scenes of 1980s London and Hindu ceremonies held in the Indian pilgrimage town of Vrindavan, Uttar Pradesh. Robyn was renowned for collaborating with counter-culture personalities including Zandra Rhodes, Vivienne Westwood, Divine and Sunshine's art-fashion icon, Leigh Bowery.

My Milonga, the Dance of the Heart

The Dance of the Heart is a series of complex and large scale photographic images inspired by the Tango. Using the Tango as a visual metaphor, the artists visually explore the intricate details of diversity in humanity as it negotiates relationships on the (re)imagined dance floor. The exhibition narrative is also about Australia embracing the changing face of its people; as we open ourselves to modern diversity.

Personal Touch

Throughout history, self-portraiture has provided a means for artists to examine their place in society. In the time of the camera phone, self-representation by artists provokes needed discussion on the problematic binaries associated with gender and identity. Personal Touch expresses the sensitivity with which artists are addressing the evolving nature of selfhood, at a time when the political status quo fails to do so. Featuring Archie Barry, Bailee-Rose Farnham, Tyza Stewart, Bon Mott, Nunzio Madden, with text by Nevo Zisin.

Queer Economies

Queer Economies takes its cue from the handmade artworks that queer artist and activist David McDiarmid gifted to friends and loved ones during his lifetime.

Following in McDiarmid's generous logic, Queer Economies is a multi-part exhibition exploring the non-monetary, in-kind economies that emerge within LGBTQIA+ communities, in order to foster resilience, love and connection. Queer Economies encompasses newly commissioned artworks to be presented at Bus Projects; a community-led open call exhibition at St Heliers Street Gallery, Abbotsford Convent, inviting members of the LGBTQIA+ community to contribute an artwork 'gift' to someone to whom they are grateful; a series of contemporary video works screened after dark as part of the Centre for Contemporary Photography's Night Projection Window; and a multi-site series of co-active public programs occurring during the festival.

Harding's exhibition explores discrimination and pinkwashing

This exhibition was derived from an SBS News broadcast from Jan 2018, as Australia geared up for Midsumma Pride March in Melbourne and the 40th Anniversary of the Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras. Harding's artworks mingle images of celebration with archive footage of targeted attacks on people of difference to explore how discrimination has been experienced by LGBTQIA+ people around the world.

Sodomy

A tangential exploration of the dark swamps of Prahran

Come along on a journey with Cam Knuckey as he talks about the sordid history of Prahran. From boy floggings, baby farming, brothels, rapes and murders to the trials in the Prahran Court, explore the relationship of the gays of the period in contrast to the high life and Town Hall Balls and Banquets of the rich establishment that sat and judged them.

Finally, a nude dance party for EVERYone!

Kicking off Midsumma 2019, ADAM & EVERYone is a queer dance experience like you've never had (unless you've spent quality time in Berlin!). All night, all gender inclusive and nude-heavy. The team that presents ADAM, LUST and the Midsumma Pool Party have put together a dance party featuring incredible DJs with DJs including techno heavy-weights Adrian Bell & DJ Kiti, and Sydney trance legend Ruby, with performances over 4 floors in one iconic Melbourne location. Sex-positive, body-positive, techno-heavy, and with liberal doses of euphoria, consent and respect.

ADAM Pool Party

The 10th anniversary of Melbourne's favourite pool party for guys!

ADAM's pool party at Melbourne's fabulous Wet on Wellington sauna is an essential part of your Midsumma itinerary. Hot, vivacious and sexy, it embodies Melbourne summer. 2019 is the 10th Anniversary of the iconic Pool Party at Wet on Wellington during Midsumma and ADAM are pleased to be hosting the event for the third year in a row. Sold out last year with over 500 guys attending, we suggest booking early. Special guest DJs include Adam Love (Syd). And of course it's your choice if you wear your favourite swimmers — or nothing at all!

Wheelchair Access

Wheelchair access varies from venue to venue. To check a venue's wheelchair accessibility, look for the wheelchair access symbol alongside an event listing. Midsumma relies on accurate information provided by the venues; we recommend contacting the venue to confirm their accessibility.

National Relay Service

If you are Deaf, hard of hearing or have difficulty speaking, contact the National Relay Service on 133 677 or via relayservice.com.au, then ask for 03 9296 6600 during business hours. There is no additional charge for this service.

Companion Card Holders

Companion Card holders qualify for a complimentary ticket for their companion. Please contact Midsumma Ticketing on 03 9296 6600 to book.

Accessible Events

Please see individual event listings or midsumma.org.au for further information about services such as Auslan interpretation, audio description and tactile tours.

Alternative Format Guides

Large print, plain text and screen reader versions of the program can be downloaded on the Midsumma website midsumma.org.au

Alternatively, call Midsumma on 03 9296 6600 and we can email or post them to you.

How can I get my Tickets?

Online

Purchase tickets quickly and easily by searching for the event at midsumma.org.au and select 'Book Online'. We accept VISA and MasterCard only. Tickets are available online until one hour before an event's start-time, unless otherwise specified.

Call Us

Our friendly ticketing team are available most weekdays from 11am to 4pm on 03 9296 6600 for enquiries and bookings. The office will be closed between Christmas and New Year but online bookings are available over this period.

At the Venue

Purchase tickets at the venue ticket booth, from one hour prior to the show. Tickets are subject to availability. Contact the venue directly to confirm venue opening times. Some venues may be cash only.

Ticket Delivery

All tickets will be emailed to you directly. Save paper and show your Print@Home tickets on your smart-phone at the venue. Phone ran out of battery? Simply turn up! Venues will have a door list, photo ID required.

Exchanges

Exchange can be organised up to 24 hours prior to the commencement of the event. Please note that exchanges can only be arranged during office hours, Monday to Friday. Exchanges can only be for the same event, for the same value or higher and prior to the dates of the events. For more information visit midsumma.org.au
