Welcome to Midsumma 2001

Welcome to the City of Melbourne. We respectfully acknowledge that we are meeting on the traditional land of the Kulin Nations. This special place now known by its European name of Melbourne.

Today, Melbourne is one of the greatest multicultural cities of the world, a significant meeting place. For the Boonwoonung, Wurundjeri, Djabourjung and the Wathawurrung which make up the great Kulin Nations, Melbourne has always been an important meeting place and location for events of social, educational, sporting and cultural significance.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Welcome to the thirteenth annual Midsumma Festival. In this, our first official year, Midsumma presents the strongest artistic program yet with the best of local, national and international queer talent. With three weeks of art and community this celebration of gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and pansexual culture has enough experimented, experimental, sophisticated solutions of beauty for everyone.

Midsumma’s favourite events return including Street Party, Red Raw, Pride March and of course the spectacular Finale weekend with Pool Party, the new Awards Night Ceremony in the Park, Carnival Day and T-Dance. In a look at more diverse future Midsumma is proud to support Indigenous arts this year with an area dedicated to Visual Arts, Performing Arts, and Spoken Word programs. Midsumma’s first ever outside of Melbourne promotes in Bendigo with a Visual Arts event contracting to our local regional supporters.

Partnerships with Victoria’s leading arts organisations have also been strengthened with Midsumma extending its influence to the Victorian Arts Centre Black Box with a suite to plan performances there and the stunning new Melbourne Museum’s Body Arts exhibitions. A celebration of body continues with Midsumma and Team Melbourne joining to bring this best event program ever and a renewed push towards the personal best at the 2002 Gay Games.

I personally welcome The Market Hotel back in their second year as Principal Sponsor and extend my welcome to all new and renewing financial sponsors. I invite the whole community to join in this celebration of our culture, lifestyle and diversity. I invite everybody to get up, take notice and to remember – Midsumma is not just a party but…

Nigel Wriggles, President.

Midsumma is committed to presenting an annual arts and cultural festival that, within a safe and healthy environment, celebrates the pride and diversity of Melbourne’s lesbian, gay, and allied communities.

The board of Midsumma festival is keen to produce an annual arts and cultural festival that:
- includes all and representation to the lesbian, gay, queer, bisexual, transgender and pansexual sections of the community
- is diverse and challenging in supports and encourages community activities that promotes as having cultural relevance within the community
- promotes opportunities for new artist talent, education, community to become consumers of lesbian and gay arts culture
- is commercial to excellence; maintaining arts and employ power in lesbian and gay arts and culture in Melbourne, Victoria and Australia
- builds strategic alliances with other marginalized arts and cultural communities including indigenous and multicultural communities
- is recognized as a principle arts and cultural festival both in Victoria and internationally.

The Market Hotel is proud once again to be Principal Sponsor of Midsumma.

Midsumma Festival is a magnificent three week period which showcases gay and lesbian arts and culture, and we hope in 2001 the community joins forces to produce one of the most talked about gay and lesbian events of the year.

It is important to have a festival that we can call our own.

Happy Midsumma!

Spero Condos, The Market Hotel

Qantas is delighted to be the Official Airline of the Midsumma Festival and to be a part of Melbourne’s gay and lesbian arts and cultural programme for the 19th consecutive year.

As Australia’s leading airline, Qantas has more direct flights from Melbourne to more destinations than any other airline. So when you’re next thinking of travelling for business or pleasure, choose the airline that’s taking Melbourne to the world.

Thank you to Melbourne’s gay and lesbian community for your continued support and have a wonderful festival.

OPENING NIGHT STREET PARTY

Commercial Road Prahran is the setting for Melbourne's most colourful outdoor night time celebrations - the opening night of the 2001 Midsumma Gay and Lesbian Festival! The street will be bursting at the seams with poodles and panners, dykes and drags, and muscle marchers of all shapes and sizes jostling for the spotlight. Everyone is invited to join the celebration as Melbourne's queer community kick up their collective heels to welcome in the 13th Midsumma Festival.

Be early to see Dykes on Bikes and Melbourne Monocyclo Tours as they arrive on Commercial Road just in time to avoid the madness of the infamous Trilly Dolly Folly Race. Get lost in the action of The Market Hotel's Disco Dance Space, and marvel at the Xchange Hotel's Rooftop Drag Xtravaganza. Stand in awe as roaming entertainers and dizzy drag queens scramble out of the way of Midsumma's Olympic inspired trampoline demonstration.

This night is not for the faint hearted. It's a roller coaster ride of excess. Join the rabble or take a ringside seat at one of the many kerbside cafes or bars and watch the parade pass by.

DIAMANDA GALÁS
in LA SERPENTA CANTA (The Serpentess Sings)

The internationally acclaimed vocalist, pianist, composer and poet, Diamanda Galás will be performing her latest work for the first time in Australia as part of the Midsumma Festival. Diamanda Galás is an exceptional talent with an extraordinary, explosive technique and a quintessentially theatrical performance style. With her inimitable three and a half octaves operatic voice laced with angels and demons, her theatrical power transcends singing as we know it. Diamanda Galás is the real deal. Her performances are captivating, compelling and not to be missed.

In La Serpenta Canta (The Serpentess Sings), a cycle of songs concentrating on the soul and blues as only Galás knows how to sing it, she performs a selection of her favourite songs from the likes of Screaming Jay Hawkins, Mahalia Jackson and Ornette Coleman, including classics such as I Put A Spell On You, Let My People Go, My World is Empty Without You and The Thrill Is Gone.

"Ghoulish yet gripping, Diamanda Galás makes herself heard. From devil to angel, beast to holy hero, she has inspired a host of otherworldly associations. Galás is one of music's most passionately beloved cult artists and one of its most daunting."

Calendar Girls Photographic Exhibition & Launch

Calendar Girls (colour photographs by Nick Jones) presents a humorous twist on the image of the ‘calendar girl’. Stunning modelling is provided by the Melbourne Marting Girls and famous drag queens, who get their gear all to entertain and amuse you. Have the exhibition all year round by purchasing the calendar at www.gmap.com.au/calendargirls.

Obscenes

Richard Morrison examines the obscenity inherent in the bucolic scene of Melbourne. On the virtues of the Gypsy bar, the paintings delve into the nocturnal revelry that ends in that morning-after reflection with a lute and the interpretation of a post-romantic masculinity. Richard argues that the obscenity is not to be ‘stated’.

Re (-) present

Re (-) present is a collection of mixed media works. It is a new intuitive providing support and visual expressions for young people around Melbourne. Artists convened and worked together over three months to combine their experiences and provide evidence of their ideas and realities. Sponsored by the Melbourne City Council, a project of Creative, Melbourne Health Service.

‘Torture’ the exhibition

‘Torture’ the exhibition is a door to a far world, a cruel fairy tale where inspiration lies in every human being. Nineteen artists pictured, sculpted and performed the different psychological and physical trauma of victims and strangely enough perpetuates of torture. This event is everything but a graphic picture of cruelty. It is an inspiring view of our own dark possibilities and fear.

Sponsored by Amnesty International.

The Erotic Cup

Last year it was ‘Transcendental’, this year it’s ‘The Erotic Cup’. The tradition of erotic Midsama exhibitions continues at the Northcote Pottery Gallery. Some of Victoria’s most notable artists presente the ‘cup’ for your erotic pleasure.

Window to my Fantasies- Elaine D’Esterre

Elaine D’Esterre is recognized as one of our most outstanding artists. Elaine has been pairing, painting and teaching art and life drawing since 1971, and has featured in exhibitions in Victoria, Tasmania and Queensland, fresh out of Dublin University with a Ph.D. in hand - to prepare for an exceptional and powerful exhibition of fascinating figures in a surrealistic setting.

Represented in the art gallery of South Australia, this is John’s first Melbourne exhibition.

Significant Moments

Pride March and Australian Lesbian and Gay Archives present an exhibition celebrating 180 years of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender life. Funded by the Victorian Government, through the Centenary of Federation Victoria Community Support Fund, this exhibition will be displayed at Assembly, the Foyle Concert, carried in Pride March on January 21 and at Melbourne Carnival.

Jonathan Mills, Melbourne Festival Director

My best wishes to all participating in Melbourne. My congratulations to Nigel Higgins and Brendan Geyer and their team for creating a diverse program of great appeal.

A festival is a great opportunity for any community to express itself. Melbourne’s role in forging connections and encouraging a sense of belonging within Melbourne’s gay and lesbian community is significant.

Have a great time. With very best wishes from your colleagues at the Melbourne festival.

Vanessa Pigram, Melbourne Fringe Festival Director

Are Melbourne where you can get such wet & wicked, explosive, racy art, a dog show, stylish fashion on the field AND a bit of spicy magic all in the one juicy program?

Melbourne Fringe celebrates the sparkling diversity of the queer family. But let’s be honest. We really love it because it heralds the official start of our summer social season. Ladies bring a plate! Melbourne Fringe wishes you all the best for another big festival.

Strawberry Sunday

Strawberry Sunday presents the theory and practice of queer sexuality. In text and graphics this new fiction book is the latest installment of ML's "Dowd's Past Modern Queer Project. Independent event.

The Launch of "Gay"

Seldom does a book deal with the range of issues and perspectives of Steve Dowd's "Gay" (www.woolshed.com). Dealing with the outward expressions and inner feelings of queer people today, "Gay" is a collection of writing from a personal and traditional perspective, incorporating interviews and personal articles. "Gay" is a book to treasure, to come along and take a glass and find out who 'gay' might mean today. Sponsored by Common Ground Publishing.
The Singing...Forest by Performing Arts Productions

From the producers of 'Harriet in St. M stimulate the true story of Heinz E and his extraordinary struggle to survive the horrors of Nazi persecution. As a young homosexual boy in tormented Europe of World War II, Heinz embarks on an incredible journey. Through his quick wit and luck, he manages to cheat death by his good looks and intelligence. Sometimes, Heinz's courage is unbreakable but always resilient, this emotive and remarkable epic will stay with you long after the story ends. Notice this production contains nudity, sex and violence. Some scenes may offend. Limited season.

'Sex With Men Too' by Steven Dawson

From Melbourne's Own Out Cast Theatre and Steven Dawson, the wicked writer of 'Big Dicks on Stag' comes two brand new comedies. The "Deep Sea" is a tale of religious righteousness and good old fashioned "sunny-pooch". A "Gorgon's Beak of Fluff" is the story of a porn actor and his right-hand man, both looking for a different kind of love. Warning: may contain nudity...if you're lucky.

Ms Penelope in 'Gayschool'

Only Heaven Knows

Alex Hadley's charming musical play is a rollicking adventure through the life of a young man growing up gay in Australia. Tim's journey overflows with funny moments, discovery, love, loss, heartbreak and all the love that goes with coming out. In the series, 'Only Heaven Knows', illustrates that nothing changes in the epic journey of self discovery.

'PRETTY Butch face' by Bridget Boson

'PRETTY Butch face' unleashes the raw humanism of the writer/performer, Bridget Boson. The show combines the dynamic and engaging energy of stand up comedy with cleverly staged and scripted theatre. Interspersed are songs, subversive skits, social conflict and irreverent yet compassionate mimicry. Bridget dynamically builds and incorporates visual aids with acute observations and explorations of the essentially hilarious business of being whoever you are. This show is a solid piece of empathy, which is very bloody funny.

Robyn Archer, Gay Games VI Artistic Director

The proliferation throughout Australia of events which celebrate gay, lesbian, transgender and bisexual culture, is an indication of how lucky we are to live in a country where a lot of the battles have been won.

The stories, efforts and skills which arise from these celebrations are testament to a community which has survived and is thriving, and has a great deal to offer society at large.

While you enjoy this Midsumma, open a thread for those in the global community, some our close neighbours, who do not yet enjoy our freedom. I hope you are planning (and saving) to meet some of them and your Australia-wide and worldwide counterparts in Sydney when Melbourne goes home for the Gay Games VI Sporting and Cultural Festival. Robyn Archer AO

Muthafucka MC, Winner King Victoria 2000

Being crowned King Victoria, is one of my proudest moments. I know people have no right to be so great as me, but people can try, and Midsumma might help you along just like they helped me.

I just flew in from L.A last night. Grammer, girls, record deal, it was great - but Midsumma in Melbourne rocks my world.

So here's a shout out to my main crew - Kung Kings, pools, dykes, tramps, queers, I LOVE MUGS!!!帶 IT UP!!!

Right...

Victorian AIDS Council/Gay Men’s Health Centre

‘That some are more equal than others’

Only $16.50 full price
$11 concessions (VGLRL/Joy Melbourne members)

Mass Debate is a social event involving various speakers and discussion groups following the debate. Speakers include

- Renowned comedienne and political activist Julia Morris
- VGLRL/Gay Men’s Health Centre Director, Edward Aird
- A leading social justice lawyer

These speakers are all passionate about equality and will discuss a range of topics in the spirit of the theme. You can expect a lively and thought-provoking debate.

Be entertained by our speakers - Julia Morris - as she tickles and teases an array of clever people through the topic ‘Front: some are more equal than others’.

PLUS enjoy the special talent ‘Squeal of Fortune’. You could be an audience member and one of these celebrities plays on behalf of the audience.

Also bring to life the magic of the ‘Woman of Deception’.

As if that isn’t enough - Make sure you’re a part of our GRAND PRIZE RAFFLE - buy your ticket for the raffle at the door and you could win THE most FABULOUS prizes.

Our event SOLD OUT last midsumma. Sadly we had to turn people away at the door! So this midsumma...

Andrea rienesets

Let the sublime voice of Andrea rienesets take you to another place. Her songwriting is exquisite. Her delivery irresistible. Her performances flip story telling into the erotic. Her acoustic touch and techno savvy leave a lingering sensuality. Listed among the luminaries of contemporary popular music, Andrea_gracefully stepped onto the world stage with "Wooden Child" - a playful chime of heartbreak and defance. Andrea's new songs map her physical and emotional journey through soul-Antarctica, the fantasies, ironic and ironies of our deeper lives, and the suburban whir of the whir store. From Antarctica to Semaphore, her idiosyncratic take on the world creates a musical journey, rich and resonant.
"A swag of techno and street savvy..." Rolling Stone. "Her voice is more miracle than mystery..." HO Magazine.

There Are Bears In There

Peter Harley and David Rogers Smith in "There Are Bears In There" - two more hairy old peoels sing show tunes - songs by Sandheims, Porter, Gershwin, Romantis, and wicked originals. Entertaining music with a gay sensibility - songs that tell our stories.
